This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person.
The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

2 Corinthians 5:17 (NLT)

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come.

The old has gone, the new is here!” (II Corinthians 5:17)

Purposeful Pondering: Pressure and Persistence

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come.

The old has gone, the new is here!” (II Corinthians 5:17)

Women of all ages, near and far, gather to become renewed, refreshed and rejuvenated for the New Year. Invite a daughter, sister, mother, neighbor or friend and enjoy being pampered by the retreat center staff. Newcomers are always welcome. It has been said, whether you come alone or with someone, you will find yourself sitting next to a friend. Be part of an enduring tradition. It will just not be the same without YOU!

The Rev. Karen Tamorria will lead worship Saturday morning and has agreed to be our keynote speaker. Pastor Karen has been a member of St. Timothy for nearly 2 years along with her husband, Pastor Mike Tamorria. After serving many years of ministry in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Ohio, they moved to Carlisle to be closer to Karen’s mother who is 100+ years young! Karen and Mike have not only provided pastoral care and supply when needed at St. Timothy but also have been willing to travel and supply throughout neighboring states.

Karen has a passion for women’s ministries and women’s biblical studies. Many women well-known in the scriptures as well as those who are hidden or nameless have impacted our Christian formation in the past and thankfully encourage us to move boldly into the future.

Through the discovery of patterns in creation and in Christ’s life, Pastor Karen will help us explore the benefits of healthy mutual sharing. We were designed by God’s grace to grow and mature together as the Church here on earth.

Our time together will be rich with opportunities to worship and participate in a small group bible study with discussion at your own pace. All the while we will enjoy one another’s fellowship through crafts, games and laughter; eat good food and sing, as well as, connect with other women who just like you want to be encouraged in their faith journey as disciples of Christ. What a way to begin the New Year!! You will be glad you did.
