ALLELUIA! Christ is Risen

St. Timothy Evangelical Lutheran Church

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Congregational Meeting May 19, 2024

Council recommended a revised Constitution for St. Timothy to be distributed in early April through the church office by email. If requested, this document will also be available in hard copy for those who choose. The Executive Committee will be available to have your questions answered PRIOR to the May congregational meeting. Three Q&A opportunities are listed below and will be held in rooms 3,4,5 unless otherwise notified.

- Sunday, April 14th at 11:45 am (following second worship service)
- Tuesday, April 16th at 10:30 am
- Wednesday, April 24th at 6:30 pm

Plan now to attend one of these sessions so that you are fully informed prior to the May meeting. The procedure for congregational approval of any changes to St. Timothy's constitution requires two consecutive votes at two congregational meetings. Affirmative votes at both May 19th and November 17th, 2024, congregational meetings without any changes between meetings are required for adoption. Otherwise, the 2-step process begins again once all changes are made. Let's unite our efforts and work toward accepting a revised, user-friendly document in 2024. Thank you!

From the Pastor's Desk...

There are so many different ways to join Jesus on the mission of redemption of souls and restoration of hearts and all of creation! It is never dull when daily looking for the way to join Jesus on his mission!

How about creative ways, like a bumper sticker? The latest I saw was actually so true, "The shape of true love isn't a heart. It's a cross." Or, how about buying a t-shirt to wear that gets people's attention, "I took a DNA test and God's my Father!" Or, "I'm not that perfect Christian. I'm the one that knows I NEED JESUS."

Whether in ordinary or creative ways, let's work together to join Jesus in the work of building faith in God and restoring the world to God's peace.

We are ordinary people called to the extraordinary work of God who is establishing the Kingdom of heaven among us. God doesn't need perfection for His mission, because he has already perfectly done the work of redemption. What God asks from us is the daily practice of joining Jesus in the work he is already doing, restoring souls and all of creation to peace and well-being!

Mindfully use the five mission practices that we explored during our reading from the Joining Jesus on His Mission from Pastor Greg Finke, "The practices position us to enjoy people who seek, recognize and respond to what Jesus is already doing in the lives of the people we are enjoying:

1. Seeking the kingdom: The kingdom of God is the redemptive presence and activity of God on the move in the world around us. God asks us to seek it so we can find it. What are we looking for? We are looking for where God is showing us that grace can be applied. We are looking for where a little love and truth would make a difference. It often looks like human need.
2. Hearing from Jesus: Allow Jesus to continue discipling us and guiding us into his mission by opening one of the Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke or John) and joining the crowd following Jesus around. Listen to what he actually said. Watch what he actually did. Ask yourself, "What if Jesus means this? How does he want me to respond?" Hint: it usually begins with "humbling myself."
3. Talking with People: God can do more with two people talking with each other than he can with two people successfully ignoring each other. Talking with people means we do more listening than talking. We can do this randomly with strangers or regularly with people who live, work and play near us. This practice is for introverts and extroverts, honoring the relational pace with which God has wired us. Ask for the person's name, find out where they come from and invite them to tell their story. Listen for what they are ready for. Take it one conversation at a time.

4. Doing Good: We are Jesus with skin on. When we find out what someone is ready for we step in and help. What good can we do that will make Jesus' intangible love and goodness tangible to people around us? Remember, Jesus says he does his best work through the small things we do. Think "seed," "pinch of yeast" or "cool cup of water."
5. Ministering through Prayer: When trust has had time to build, people will start sharing what is really going on in their lives. When a person shares something real and hard, we can respond to them with a simple offer of grace: "Would you like me to pray with you about that?" (Pages 173-74)

This is not just for the season of Lent, but by putting these 5 Practices into play every day leads us into a missionary lifestyle and then you will never be bored. It will be exciting every day that you practice looking for Jesus and joining him in God's mission of bringing the peace of heaven right where you are.

Yours in Christ,
The Rev. Roger G. Keller, Pastor

Sunday Worship...living water!

Jesus said: “whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst”
John 4:14

Is money, success, pleasure, or a comfortable retirement the center of your life? Certainly, we need money, good wages, and a fair profit. Certainly, God wants us to enjoy life. However, if we make these things our highest goal in life, that’s idolatry. The creed of the materialistic idol is more, more, and more! But the dead take no money with them. Material things cannot quench the thirsts of life.

Only Jesus quenches the thirsts of life. Jesus suffered the agony of thirst on the cross so that we will never thirst. He gives us living water – Himself! From His cross and empty tomb flow mercy, pardon, and forgiveness for all of our idolatries. During Sunday worship, we are reminded how this living water has cleansed us in baptism. During Sunday worship, this living water refreshes and revives us as we hear the Scriptures, listen to the preached Word, and receive His body and blood during Holy Communion.

Each Sunday, make the worship of Jesus your first priority, and let Him quench every thirst!

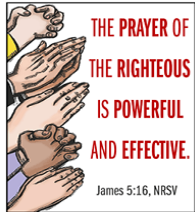

Shepherding Care thoughts...table time!

“When He was at the table with them, He took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him”
Luke 24:30-31

Kitchen, dining room, restaurant, and picnic tables have many stories they could tell. Around these tables fellowship occurs, and guests are entertained. Around them family discussions are held that shape our lives. Around them we pray and hold devotions, and our lives are strengthened.

Jesus’ followers knew well the joy of sitting at the table with Him. In the home of Mary and Martha, at the celebration of the Passover when our Lord’s Supper was instituted, Jesus used table time to teach and help His followers, leading them closer to Him. The eyes of the Emmaus disciples were opened as Jesus took bread, gave thanks, and shared table time with them.

Think about your table time. Pray that God will use your hospitality, and the time you spend at table with family, friends, and strangers, as eye-opening experiences for them. Their eyes opened to the beauty and joy of their Savior, Jesus!
